NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES: EFFECTIVE April 14, 2003 As required by the Privacy Regulations created as a result of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPPA): This notice describes how health related information about you may be disclosed, and how you can get access to this information. We are required by law to maintain confidentiality of health information that identifies you as well as your health status. Your Protected Health Information (PHI) can be used for treatment, payment, and health care operations. Our practice will obtain your written authorization for uses and disclosures that are not identified by this notice or permitted by applicable law. Any authorization you provide us regarding the use and disclosure of your PHI may be revoked at any time in writing. After you revoke your authorization, we will no longer use or disclose your PHI for the reasons described in the authorization except to the extent that your physician or the practice has taken action in reliance on the use or disclosure indicated in the authorization. Upon written request, you have the right to request that our practice communicate with you about your health and related issues in a particular manner. You may also request us, in writing, to amend your health insurance information if you believe it to be incorrect or incomplete. You have the right to request a restriction, in writing, in our use or disclosure of your PHI for treatment, payment, or health care operations and for non-treatment or operations purposes. We are not required to agree to your request; however, if we do agree, we are bound by our agreement except when otherwise required by law, in emergencies, or when the information is necessary to treat you. We reserve the right to revoke any voluntary agreement to restrict the use or disclosure of your PHI that we may enter into.
